

I am a huge supporter of XM Satellite radio. The FCC should not lobby against anything that XM Radio is doing for the public listener. If we choose to pay for it then there should be nothing anyone can do about it.